

BEACH RETREAT from Erica Broberg and Scott Smith

The trick with this Montauk, New York, bathroom was to incorporate the home's modern architecture while also conveying warmth. "The space is open and calm," says designer Erica Broberg of East Hampton-based Smith River Kitchens, who created the room with partner Scott Smith. "The colors are muted, and there's not a lot of detail in the cabinetry." Clean-lined mahogany woodwork complements the pale-green tile, which echoes the color of the Montauk dunes seen from the second-floor space.
